

IN THIS ISSUE:-

- None of the usual stuff.
- None of the stuff I had compiled so far.
- Some stuff I sort of knew would happen, but gave it the benefit of the doubt for too long.
- Something not many people would readily agree to, but makes perfect sense to me!

Scumbags!

Stop press!

The Spokesman has been forced to halt publication of the October edition, due to the rapidly changing events taking place.

Much of this could be held as nothing to do with the ordinary cyclist, but of course it isn't, in the same way that WMD, phone hacking, Lehman Brothers, Jimmy Saville and a whole bunch of other stuff makes our world nastier than it should be, for reasons we don't understand.

So, your editor has decided unilaterally to pull the part-completed edition off the press, and this will be finished off next month, sometime.

It will include all your favourites, such as Dusk 2 Dawn, the Hill Climb, Alan's last 10, the return of Where's Jeffrey?, Committee Corner, Bikewatch, and much more besides.

Shelton for UCI President!

If David Cameron recently described Boris Johnson as a mop, and Boris described Dave as a broom, someone with a full-sized 18 tonne municipal road sweeper must be what we need right now.

The Spokesman has a feeling that there may be a few vacancies coming up in the UCI in the next few weeks, although the incumbents may take a bit of shifting, given past performances.

In fact, it is entirely possible that said organisation may cease to exist at all, so taking on the top job may not be entirely risk-free.

Job Specification

The successful applicant will be able to make their views heard, and call a scumbag a scumbag as required.

A handsome salary and benefits package is on offer, but the ability to ride a bike is not a mandatory requirement.

Shelton for UCI President!

Some might say that this hour has been a long time coming, but

“Cometh the hour, cometh the man!”

To show your support, place this poster in your window!

Disclaimer: this article does not necessarily represent the views of Team Cambridge, nor anyone else in particular...

